On April 28, 2021, Galileo issued a press release announcing the execution of a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated as of April 28, 2021

(the “Merger Agreement”), with Shapeways, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Shapeways”). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, a Delaware subsidiary of Galileo will merge with and into Shapeways, with Shapeways surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Galileo. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

As a result of entering into the Merger Agreement, the deadline by which Galileo must complete its initial business combination or liquidate the trust account that holds the proceeds of Galileo’s initial public offering extends to October 22, 2021.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains, and certain oral statements made by representatives of Galileo and Shapeways and their respective affiliates, from time to time may contain, “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Galileo’s and Shapeways’ actual results may differ from their expectations, estimates and projections and consequently, you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “project,” “budget,” “forecast,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “predicts,” “potential,” “might” and “continues,” and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, Galileo’s and Shapeways’ expectations with respect to future performance of Shapeways, anticipated financial impacts of the proposed transaction (the “Transaction”), the anticipated addressable market for Shapeways, the satisfaction of the closing conditions to the Transaction, the pre-money valuation of Shapeways (which is subject to certain inputs that may change prior to the closing of the Transaction and is subject to adjustment after the closing of the Transaction), and the timing of the closing of the Transaction. These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from expected results. Most of these factors are outside the control of Galileo and are difficult to predict. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement; (2) a default by one or more of the investors in the PIPE on its commitment, and Galileo’s failure to retain sufficient cash in its trust account or find replacement financing in order to meet the $100 million minimum cash condition in the Merger Agreement; (3) the inability to consummate the Transaction, including due to failure to obtain approval of the shareholders of Galileo or other conditions to the closing in the Merger Agreement; (4) delays in obtaining or the inability to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals required to complete the Transaction; (5) the inability to obtain the listing of Galileo’s securities on NYSE following the Transaction; (6) the risk that the Transaction disrupts current plans and operations as a result of the announcement and consummation of the Transaction; (7) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Transaction, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of Shapeways to grow and manage growth economically and hire and retain key employees; (8) costs related to the Transaction; (9) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (10) the effect of the COVID-19 pandemic on Galileo or Shapeways and their ability to consummate the Transaction; (11) the possibility that Galileo or Shapeways may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; and (12) other risks and uncertainties to be identified in the registration/proxy statement (when available) relating to the Transaction, including those under “Risk Factors” therein, and in other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) made by Galileo or Shapeways. Galileo and Shapeways caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive, and caution readers not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. None of Galileo or Shapeways undertakes or accepts any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any change in its expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, subject to applicable law.

Readers are referred to the most recent reports filed with the SEC by Galileo. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made, and Galileo undertakes no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Important Information About the Transactions and Where to Find It

DISCLAIMER, CONT.

Forward Looking Statements - Certain statements included in this Presentation are not historical facts but are forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements generally are accompanied by words such as "believe," "may," "will," "estimate," "continue," "anticipate," "intend," "expect," "should," "would," "plan," "predict," "potential," "seem," "seek," "future," "outlook," and similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters, but the absence of these words does not mean that a statement is not forward-looking. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding estimates and forecasts of other financial and performance metrics and projections of market opportunity. These statements are based on various assumptions, whether or not identified in this Presentation, and on the current expectations of the Company's management and are not predictions of actual performance. These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to serve as, and must not be relied on by any investor as, a guarantee, an assurance, a prediction or a definitive statement of fact or probability. Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to predict and will differ from assumptions. Many actual events and circumstances are beyond the control of the Company. Some important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in any forward-looking statements could include changes in domestic and foreign business, market, financial, political and legal conditions. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties; the inability of the parties to successfully or timely consummate the Potential Business Combination, including the risk that any required regulatory approvals are not obtained, are delayed or are subject to unanticipated conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the Potential Business Combination is not obtained; failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the Potential Business Combination; risks relating to the uncertainty of the projected financial information with respect to the Company; the risk that the Company's target markets may not increase at projected rates; the size of the Company's market opportunity may not materialize; the Company may not be able to successfully scale its business to attract larger, and repeat customers; customers may not continue to use the Company's services; supply chain interruptions; the Company's ability to scale its manufacturing capabilities; the Company may not be able to turn pipeline customers into customers that will provide significant revenues; defects in products the Company manufactures; the Company's ability to successfully expand its product lines and channel distribution; competition; the uncertain effects of the COVID-19 pandemic; and those factors discussed in documents of Galileo filed, or to be filed, with SEC. If any of these risks materialize or our assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by these forward-looking statements. There may be additional risks that neither Galileo nor the Company presently know or that Galileo and the Company currently believe are immaterial that could also cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect Galileo's and the Company's current expectations, plans or forecasts of future events and views as of the date of this Presentation. Galileo and the Company anticipate that subsequent events and developments will cause Galileo's and the Company's assessments to change. However, while Galileo and the Company may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, Galileo and the Company specifically disclaim any obligation to do so. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing Galileo's or the Company's assessments as of any date subsequent to the date of this Presentation. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed upon the forward-looking statements.

Financial Information; Non-GAAP Financial Measures - The financial information and data for the year ended 2018 are audited. The financial information and data for the years ended 2019 and 2020 are actual unaudited and do not conform to Regulation S-X. Accordingly, such information and data may not be included in, may be adjusted in or may be presented differently in, any proxy statement or registration statement to be filed by Galileo or Shapeways with the SEC. Some of the financial information and data contained in this Presentation, such as Adjusted EBITDA are non-GAAP metrics. These non-GAAP financial metrics have not been prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). These non-GAAP measures, and other measures that are calculated using such non-GAAP measures, are an addition, and not a substitute for or superior to measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to operating income, net income or any other performance measures derived in accordance with GAAP. A reconciliation of the projected Non-GAAP financial measures has not been provided because certain items excluded from these Non-GAAP financial measures such as charges related to stock-based compensation expenses and related tax effects, including non-recurring income tax adjustments, cannot be reasonably calculated or predicted at this time.

Galileo and Shapeways believe these non-GAAP measures of financial results including on a forward-looking basis provide useful information to management and investors regarding certain financial and business trends relating to Shapeways' financial condition and results of operations. Shapeways' management uses these non-GAAP measures for trend analyses, for purposes of determining management incentive compensation, and for budgeting and planning purposes. Galileo and Shapeways believe that the use of these non-GAAP financial measures provides an additional tool for investors to use in evaluating projected operating results and trends in and in comparing Shapeways' financial measures with other similar companies, many of which present similar non-GAAP financial measures to investors. Management of Galileo does not consider these non-GAAP measures in isolation or as an alternative to financial measures determined in accordance with GAAP.

However, there are a number of limitations related to the use of these non-GAAP measures and their nearest GAAP equivalents. For example other companies may calculate non-GAAP measures differently, or may use other measures to calculate their financial performance, and therefore Shapeways' non-GAAP measures may not be directly comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies. See the footnotes on the slides where these measures are discussed and the Appendix for definitions of these non-GAAP financial measures and reconciliations of these non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures.

Important Information for Investors and Stockholders - Galileo and Shapeways and their respective directors and executive officers, under SEC rules, may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies of Galileo's stockholders in connection with the Potential Business Combination. Investors and security holders may obtain more detailed information regarding the names and interests in the Potential Business Combination of Galileo's directors and officers in Galileo's filings with the SEC, including Galileo's registration statement on Form S-1, to be filed with the SEC. Information regarding the persons who may, under SEC rules, be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies to Galileo's shareholders in connection with the Potential Business Combination is set forth in the proxy statement/prospectus on Form S-4 for the Potential Business Combination, which is expected to be filed by Galileo with the SEC.

This Presentation is not a substitute for the registration statement or for any other document that Galileo may file with the SEC in connection with the Potential Business Combination.

INVESTORS AND SECURITY HOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE SEC CAREFULLY AND IN THEIR ENTIRETY WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

Investors and security holders may obtain free copies of other documents filed with the SEC by Galileo through the website maintained by the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>.

INVESTMENT IN ANY SECURITIES DESCRIBED HEREIN HAS NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SEC OR ANY OTHER REGULATORY AUTHORITY NOR HAS ANY AUTHORITY PASSED UPON OR ENDORSED THE MERITS OF THE OFFERING OR THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THE INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

And now, I would like to introduce Alberto Recchi, Co-Founder and CFO of Galileo Acquisition Corp.

Alberto Recchi, Co-Founder and CFO of Galileo Acquisition Corp.

Thank you and good morning, everyone. I'm joined on today's call by Greg Kress, CEO of Shapeways. Myself, and the co-founders of Galileo, Luca Giacometti and Alberto Pontonio, are very excited to announce today the proposed business combination between Galileo Acquisition Corp and Shapeways.

Couple remarks on our SPAC: Galileo was established to focus on companies with a US and European nexus, with a generalist approach, including specialty industrials, targeting high-growth companies that are poised to capitalize on their differentiated technology. Galileo assembled a diverse team of professionals from Europe and the US with proven track records of principal investing, M&A and public company operating experience in both the North American and European markets. In particular, we have a long and successful history of leading SPACs having completed four successful business combinations prior to this transaction with Shapeways.

Over the course of the last year and a half we embarked on an extensive search which included over 200 potential targets. By far the most exciting of these was Shapeways, which is led with passion and great professionalism by Greg and his team. We were highly attracted to Shapeways as a unique and compelling investment opportunity due to its proven, high quality, flexible on-demand digital manufacturing platform and proprietary, purpose-built software which fills a major gap in the global manufacturing marketplace.

Now, among the prime reasons why we were attracted to Shapeways is the current management team. Greg and Jennifer Walsh, CFO of Shapeways, joined the company three years ago and during this time have expanded the enterprise capabilities of the business, go-to-market strategy, and substantially improved gross profit margins. Shapeways' digital manufacturing platform is engineered for scalability to drive top line growth fueled further by this capital injection. So, we believe Shapeways will be well positioned to gain global market share and expand its manufacturing capabilities and software monetization while continuing to drive industry leading margins.

The additive manufacturing industry is approaching an inflection point. We believe it is at the brink of moving from prototyping parts and tooling, to production at scale. In our opinion this will unlock large adoption and drive growth over the next decade. The industry is also making major progress on overcoming many of the challenges that hindered adoption rates over the past decade. These include characteristics such as speed, quality, materials availability (particularly in metals), part size and overall digitalization of the end-to-end manufacturing process. This is where Shapeways' moat really stands out; Shapeways has purpose built end-to-end proprietary software that has been developed and refined over the past ten years with significant investments by its current shareholders. Shapeways' manufacturing operating system is also agnostic to hardware technologies and materials which allows the company to quickly adapt to market shifts and customer needs.

With respect to the key terms of the proposed transaction, the combined company will have an estimated pro forma enterprise value of $410 million at closing. The consideration to be delivered to the Shapeways' security holders at the closing will be Galileo securities. A portion of the consideration otherwise deliverable at the closing will be withheld and will, after the closing, be subject to certain vesting and forfeiture conditions described in the principal transaction documents. The transaction is expected to result in roughly $200 million in cash to the combined company, after deal fees and expenses, assuming no redemptions and including $75 million in proceeds from the fully subscribed PIPE offering. Notably, there are no acquisition assumptions included in the projections.

As a further demonstration of their continued commitment to Shapeways, the current major shareholders who participated in past private financing rounds will remain equity holders in the combined company after the transaction, and also invest in the PIPE. These prominent firms include: Lux Capital, Union Square Ventures, Andreessen Horowitz, and INKEF Capital. The PIPE is anchored by leading financial investors, Miller Value and XN, and a publicly listed strategic investor, Desktop Metal. The closing of the transaction is expected in the third quarter of 2021, subject to ordinary closing conditions which are set forth in the merger agreement.

With that, I'm pleased to introduce you to Greg Kress, CEO of Shapeways; Greg over to you.

Greg Kress, CEO of Shapeways

Thanks Alberto.

We are very excited to be working with the Galileo team. Galileo and Shapeways have built a strong relationship over the past few quarters. We have gained a deep appreciation for the significant experience that the Galileo team brings as a proven and successful SPAC sponsor, given the successful results of their four previous transactions. Also, Galileo complements our international and domestic expertise and we believe they will provide highly strategic insight as we look to further build out and expand our global reach.

Shapeways was built from the ground up with the idea of how do you fully digitize the end-to-end manufacturing process so you can deliver high quality, low volume, high mix production at compelling economics. We are at the infancy of this digital transformation that manufacturers are going through, and Shapeways is well positioned to both participate in and contribute to this industry growth.

Shapeways makes industrial-grade additive manufacturing accessible by digitizing the end-to-end manufacturing process, and by providing a broad range of solutions to our customers, utilizing 11 additive manufacturing technologies and more than 90 materials and finishes, with the ability to easily scale new innovation.

Shapeways offers a combination of high quality, flexible on-demand manufacturing that is powered by our purpose-built proprietary software. We have spent the last 10 years and over $100 million of investment building this platform that digitizes the manufacturing process and allows Shapeways to deliver high quality industrial grade manufacturing to its customers.

The digital manufacturing market is expected to grow from some $39 billion to over $120 billion over the next 10 years, representing a 12% Compounded Annual Growth Rate, according to industry reports. This growth is driven by digitization of manufacturing and continued innovation that's taking place in Additive Manufacturing.

We support our customers through both internal manufacturing capabilities and external supply chain capabilities all managed by our proprietary software platform. Shapeways currently has two internal manufacturing facilities located in Long Island City, NY and Eindhoven in the Netherlands. Our customers are further supported by our 50 strategic supply chain partners who focus on overflow capacity that helps us meet peak demands, as well as to support us in efficiently launching new materials and technologies.

SHAPEWAYS

A key component of our growth has been the relationships with our customers which has led to a high level of repeat revenue. In 2020, 88% of our revenue came from our existing customer base. Shapeways software was built with integrations in mind. Enabling deep integrations with our customers, connecting with their systems and infrastructure to become a mission critical component of their business.

By digitizing the end-to-end manufacturing process, Shapeways can efficiently support thousands of customers' orders each day. This starts with Shapeways' software platform's ability to automate the ordering process, giving our customer the ability to upload a file, configure their product, receive instant pricing, and place their order. Shapeways software then analyzes the file for manufacturability, automatically makes corrections, and then when necessary works directly with the customer to improve the file through our automated file optimization workflows.

Shapeways software then allocates that demand internally or out to its supply chain to best optimize the supply chain capacity, minimize costs, and maximize profitability. Shapeways software then combines 1,000s of parts across 100s of customers to create the most optimized manufacturing builds possible, all with the intent of streamlining the customer experience, enabling quick turnaround time while maximizing profitability. Shapeways' software then manages the complex one-part workflow through every step of the manufacturing process, providing real time tracking and traceability.

SHAPEWAYS

Shapeways is agnostic to both manufacturing hardware and materials making it complementary to the hardware providers such as Desktop Metal, EOS and HP, along with material providers such as BASF, DSM and Henkel.

As we look forward, we believe there are multiple growth opportunities for Shapeways' platform. We are positioned to scale across materials, markets, technologies, and through our offering of software as a service. We have an opportunity to utilize our technology to accelerate the adoption in key markets including the industrial, medical, automotive and aerospace segments. This includes the continued expansion of materials usage including advanced polymers, industrial metals and materials in both composites and ceramics. In addition, we have the opportunity to expand beyond our core markets of North American and Europe into Asia.

Shapeways is also focused on expanding the part envelope beyond additive manufacturing to other manufacturing technologies to broaden our customer share of wallet. Lastly, we have a significant opportunity with utilizing our software as a service. There are more than 10 million manufacturers globally with less than 6% of them being digitized, according to industry sources. More than 90% of those manufactures are small to midsize companies that are not able to support the required capital and time investments necessary to digitize their end-to-end manufacturing. We have already deployed our software to two different design groups to help create a white labeled version of our software that provides the potential for licensing fees and other recurring and sustainable revenue streams. Given our industry leading software, we believe we can accelerate other manufacturer's digital transformation. This creates additional growth opportunities through recurring software revenue and additional manufacturing in support of those expanded capabilities.

SHAPEWAYS

Coming out of COVID, Shapeways is experiencing strong growth as customers turn to digital manufacturing for quick-turn part production and to mitigate supply chain disruption which has become all too common. With this capital injection, Shapeways is positioned to continue to invest in scaling the business further to address the market needs and enable global manufacturing with our proprietary software. Shapeways is projecting growth to ramp from $32.8 million in revenue in 2020 to over $400 million in revenue in 2025, representing a 66% compounded annual growth rate all while further expanding gross margins to over 50%. As we look at our projected revenue build over the next few years we know that historically our customers have grown with us. We know how to add and optimize new manufacturing technologies as we have demonstrated in the past. We are also planning to further commercialize our software that will provide new revenue opportunities in the form of implementation fees and licensing fees. We believe this revenue growth and margin expansion will ultimately lead to higher cashflow and EBITDA. We are projecting over $100 million in adjusted EBITDA by 2025 and believe we will be cashflow and EBITDA positive by 2023. This plan is fully funded and does not require additional funding to meet these targets.

With this capital injection, we plan to invest $100 million in CAPEX over the next five years into new technologies and materials to fuel our growth. To help accelerate this roadmap, Shapeways has signed a strategic partnership agreement with Desktop Metal, a leader in additive manufacturing metal technology, which enables Shapeways to effectively expand its metals portfolio.

Beyond all of this organic growth, there is the opportunity to grow beyond our projections in the near term through strategic acquisitions. We have identified several opportunities that would expand our geographical reach as well as our technology offering to further accelerate our growth.

In closing, I would like to summarize why we are so excited about the opportunity Shapeways has ahead of us:

- First, the digital manufacturing sector is expected to grow significantly over the next decade from some $39 billion in 2020 to $120 billion in 2030 leading to great value creation. The growth is driven by the digitization of manufacturing and the continued innovation in additive manufacturing.
- Shapeways is a leader in the Digital Manufacturing space with a proprietary software that allows for quick adaptability to market shifts and customer demand.
- And finally, we have a scalable financial model that will provide us with an opportunity to consolidate a highly fragmented additive manufacturing space and create significant shareholder value.

On behalf of the Shapeways management team, I would like to thank all of the Shapeways employees and investors who have been instrumental in getting Shapeways to this point. I would also like to welcome our newest investors, including Galileo, Miller Value, XN and Desktop Metal, in partnering with us as Shapeways transitions to a public company. Thank you again for joining us.

Company Overview

Shapeways is a leader in the large and fast-growing digital manufacturing industry combining high quality, flexible on-demand manufacturing powered by purpose-built proprietary software which enables customers to rapidly transform digital designs into physical products, globally. Shapeways makes industrial-grade additive manufacturing accessible by fully digitizing the end-to-end manufacturing process, and by providing a broad range of solutions utilizing 11 additive manufacturing technologies and more than 90 materials and finishes, with the ability to easily scale new innovation. The Company has delivered over 21 million parts to 1 million customers in over 160 countries.

The digital manufacturing market is anticipated to grow from approximately $39 billion in 2020 to approximately $120 billion in 2030 by disrupting the massive global manufacturing market which is slow, manual and rigid. The industry is experiencing a transformation due to significant advances in production technologies, innovation in materials and the adoption of software to increase speed, lower cost, and achieve higher flexibility. With its purpose-built proprietary software, which incorporates over 10 years of industry expertise and innovation, Shapeways is uniquely positioned to benefit from this industry transformation. Shapeways’ manufacturing “operating system” is agnostic to hardware technology and materials, which allows the Company to quickly adapt to market shifts and user needs. The Company supports a broad range of customers, ranging from individual project-focused engineers to small and large enterprises requiring high-mix production at scale.

Shapeways’ platform is positioned to scale across materials, markets and technologies. Expanding additive manufacturing capabilities will enable acceleration of adoption in key markets including industrial, medical, automotive, and aerospace. As an example of this opportunity, Shapeways has signed a strategic partnership with Desktop Metal, a leader in additive manufacturing metal technologies, an important expansion beyond Shapeways’ current focus on polymers. In terms of markets, Asia represents an attractive opportunity for expansion beyond the United States and Europe given the sizable annual manufacturing output from that region. Additionally, enabling manufacturers’ digital transformation provides Shapeways with a substantial market opportunity. In 2020, Shapeways began licensing a commercialized SaaS version of its proprietary software to key partners, enabling them to deploy Shapeways’ manufacturing operating system within their own organizations.

Shapeways Investment Highlights

- Unique and compelling opportunity in large, fast growing digital manufacturing market
- High quality, flexible on-demand manufacturing with proprietary purpose-built software
- Agnostic to hardware and materials allows scalability and quick adaptability to market shifts
